

Ricardo Jiménez

Head of Investor Relations at Ferrovial from 1999 to 2020. Six years elected best European IR Director (infrastructure sector) by Institutional Investor magazine. Ferrovial elected among the 50 best IR companies in the world by IR Magazine (2014-15-16). Best IR Company -All Europe- Industrial sector (2011-2012-2015). Best IR Website Europe 2018 (Institutional Investor). Best Investor Day (Europe) - 2017. Expansión award "Best stock of the year" Award (2002,2004,2009,2011).

Chairman of AERI (Spanish Investor Relations Association) from 2003 to 2008. Member of the founding committee of Spain Investor Day. Member of the Advisory Board of IR Magazine.

Speaker at the Investor Relations Global Forum in New York (2015) and Paris (2017). Contributor to the book "Strategic Communication and its contribution to reputation" (Paul A. Argent). Lecturer in the Advanced Investor Relations Course at Instituto BME. Regular contributor to "El Economista" and "IR Magazine".

Extensive experience in corporate transactions, including IPO of Ferrovial (€3bn - €20bn), IPO of Cintra (€4bn), BAA acquisition (€25bn), Cintra-Ferrovial merger, Bids for listed companies in England, Poland and Australia. Launch of Heathrow Airport fixed income IR programme (STG 14bn). Initial Ferrovial rating and fixed income issuance programme. Coordination of IR programme in Budimex (Poland).

Degree in Law and Economics (ICADE E-3).